Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in joining the esteemed team at Gouemon Japanese Restaurant. As a passionate individual with diverse skills ranging from cooking and cleaning to customer service, I am excited to contribute to your well-regarded establishment.

Currently, I am a Year 13 student at Pakuranga College, undertaking Level 3 Food Technology. My studies have armed me with both theoretical and practical culinary knowledge, further amplified by my work experience as a Grill Chef at Genghis Khan. This combination of education and hands-on exposure has refined my culinary abilities, particularly in the realms of food safety, preparation, and presentation.

My dedication to the culinary world extends beyond the classroom and kitchen. As a volunteer at Shinheung Church, I enjoyed preparing meals for the community. This role, paired with my time serving as a guitarist on the music team, showcased my versatility and commitment to service. My cleaning experiences further highlight my dedication to maintaining a pristine and hygienic workspace.

My fluency in English, Japanese, and Korean empowers me to engage with a broad spectrum of customers. This linguistic capability, coupled with my strong interpersonal skills, aligns perfectly with the multicultural and customer-oriented ethos of Gouemon Japanese Restaurant.

I am grateful for your time and consideration. I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to be a part of Gouemon Japanese Restaurant and to offer my unique blend of skills. I welcome the chance to discuss further how I can be a valuable addition to your team.

Kindly contact me at 022 494 0489 or via email at yrsrbr@gmail.com to schedule an interview at a convenient time.

Yours faithfully,
Samuel Yang
